Description:

Fascinating map of the United States, including a remarkable amount on contemporary information. Massive Nebraska Territory extends to Canada. Washington wraps around Oregon (taking in all of Idaho). Arizona is shown below New Mexico. Nevada is shown in its early narrow configuration, before the anti-Mormon sentiments of Congress moved the Nevada-Utah border to the east. Misshapen Texas. Sutter's Fort and Gold Region named, along with a prominent route to the Gold Regions. Mormon Fort and Salt Lake named. Nice Indian details. A few minor spots in the margins, but generally a very nice example, with pencil notations from an early collector highlighting the western features in the margins.
