Description:

De Vaugondy's edition of the seminal Fry-Jefferson map. The result is a beautiful single folio sheet example of the most sought after and recognizable 18th Century map of Virginia and Maryland. While the title is in French, virtually the entire map is English. The map provides a fabulously detailed look into pre-revolutionary war Virginia and Maryland, extending west to the Alleghany Mountains, and including Delaware and a portion of New Jersey, as well as the region around Philadelphia. Much has been written about this celebrated map. A gorgeous clean example of the first edition of this map, in full wash color. Phillips Atlases 619. Swem 184. Pedley 470, State 1.
