Description:

Interesting Civil War era map of the United States, colored in outline by states. Most of the Western States and Territories now exist, but Idaho is cut off at the top by Oregon (which extends to Montana) and Wyoming is still a part of Dacotah Territory. Highly detailed and interesting map, which appeared in Harrow's School Atlas, based upon SDUK maps. Split at the centerfold, with a bit of toning, else a nice example.
