Description:

Extremely rare advertising broadside map, showing the region from Baltimore to Petersburg and Norfolk. Includes extensive military information, including batteries, navy yards, forts, place where British Troops Landed, Entrenchments, Batteries on Hills, notes on fortifications around Norfolk, notes on the location of Bull Run, etc. A list of Union and Confederate Generals is shown, as are export information from 1860 and a listing of Colton's maps then being offered for sale by Bacon in London. The map is very rare. We were only able to locate the example in the Library of Congress. Minor restorations at top of broadside, including a bit of facsimile to the letter N, else a nice example. Engraved by Waters & Son, N.Y.
