Description:

Scarce map of New Hampshire, Vermont and part of Maine, from William Gordon's Gordon's American War: History of the Rise, Progress, and Establishment of the Independence of the United States of America…published in London in 1777. The map is one of the better regional maps of New England issued at the beginning of the Revolution. It locates battles and forts, and names towns, counties, townships, lakes, rivers, mountains and many other interesting details, including Dartmouth College. A few early roads are also shown. A nice example of this scarce map, with narrow left margin, as issued.
