Rare German edition of De L'Isles' map of North America, with two striking decorative cartouches of Indian Scenes in the New World. The map shows a peninsular California, excellent contemporary treatment of the Mississippi River and the Southwestern US, updated Great Lakes and dozens or early placenames and Indian Tribes. Quivera has now been moved to the Upper Plains, just above the Missouri River, which is not named. Narrow lower left margin, as issued, else near fine example of the map. Only the second example we have seen in 12 years.
