Description:

Rare early edition of Blaeu's map of Brabant, oriented with west at the top of the map. On the lower left a magnificent cartouche with a sitting female figure carrying a globe and compasses and the coat of arms of Brabant. On the left, a second female sits atop the cartouche and next to the coat of arms. The map includes the area between the rivers Rhine, Meuse and Scheldt, with Namur as the most southern town. From the 1634 edition of Blaeu's Atlas Novus, the first edition of this work. A fine dark impression. The map first appeared in Blaeu's rare 1631 Atlas Appendix. This is the second appearance of the map in Blaeu's atlas. A fine dark impression, with wide margins and attractive color.
