Description:

Decorative large format map of the British Isles, embellished with two large cartouches. Jaillot was the successor to the Sanson publishing family and in 1674 he set out to publish a series of large scale 2-sheet maps, based upon the maps (published and unpublished) left to him by Sanson. Later, the 2-sheet maps were published concurrently by Jaillot and Mortier in Amsterdam. Nice wide margins. Minor offsetting. A nice dark impression.
