Description:

Spectacular full original color example of Jaillot's map of Ireland, one of the best large format maps of Ireland issued in the 18th Century. Shows towns, roads, rivers, lakes, counties, mountains, islands, banks and a host of other fine details. Stunning large cartouche, with coat of arms and other embellishments and a decorative compass rose. An unusual map large format map which almost never appears in full color. Minor marginal repair at the bottom, else a near flawless example.
