Description:

Gorgeous example of Colton's New Mexico & Utah Territories map. A cornerstone map, exceptionally detailed and showing Fremont's 1844 and 1845 Routes, the Spanish trail from Los Angeles to New Mexico, Kearney's Route, Col. Washington's Expedition, the Cimarron Route and the location where Capt. Gunnison was ambushed by the Ute Indians. Locates numerous forts, roads, Indian information and the proposed route for the Pacific RR, and a host of early geographical features, including several rarely referenced river sinks and other features in Nevada. At least 5 counties cross the map from California to the Rockies and beyond. Wheat 832. Fitch 53:256. From the first edition of JH Colton's Atlas. Wide margins. JH Colton was one of the pre-eminent American map publishing firms in the mid-19th Century. Brown, State 4. Wheat 832. Fitch 53:256.
