Description:

Rare sea chart of a part of the White Sea, published by Jacob Theunisz (Lootsman).

At first Jacob adopted his father Anthonie's name, being known as Jacob Theunisz. Later with his brother, Caspar, in association, they added the name Lootsman to their name to avoid confusion with the father. In 1666 Jacob Lootsman published the first known edition of the Nieuwe Water-Werelt, Ofte Zee-Atlas.

Detailed Condition:

Minor waterstaining and soiling along the sides, but generally a nice example.
