Description:

Detailed battle plan showing the region around Washington, North Carolina, at the mouth of the Tar River where it joins the Pamlico River and extending south to Newbern.

The map provides a detailed description of the battle, showing troop positions and movements, the bridge across the Pamlico River, the pilings blocking the river and the lines marched by the relief troops from the South. Extensive notes in the lower right corner. From the report of Major General J.G. Foster.
