Description:

Scarce map of Baja California and Southern Arizona, which derives from Padre Miguel Venegas's map which appeared in his History of California, first published in 1757. The map is on the Consag model, which is updated from Kino's original maps of the region and showing all of the Baja. This example of the map appeared in the Dutch edition of Bellin's Histoire Generale (Tom XXII), although we have not encountered the map with Bellin's imprint.
