Description:

Secon edition of Greenleaf's scarce map of of the Prussian States on the Baltic, from the first edition of Greenleaf's Universal Atlas.

Greenleaf acquired the plates for the atlas from David Burr and made only minor changes outside of the map image. David Burr is among the most important American map makers of the 19th Century, having served a term as the chief cartographer of the United States. His maps are prized by collectors for the detail and high quality engraving style.
