Description:

Scarce pre-Civil War map of Georgia, colored by counties and townships. Shows towns, roads, mountains, rivers, railroads, lakes, etc., which appeared in Charles Morse's General Atlas of the World.

Morse's map of Georgia retains the original imprint from Morse & Breese's North American Atlas, but includes significant revisions, especially in the county configurations in the southern part of the state.

Detailed Condition:

Minor dampstain in upper margin, just touching image.
