Description:

A fine large map of eastern North America west to the Mississippi River. Few English maps, based on English cartography show this entire region.

The English colonies are shown drawn on recent cartography such as the Hermann map of Virginia and Reed map of William Reed's manuscript map of New England, and the recent grants of Pennsylvania and West New Jersey. The map is a close copy of the Morden & Browne map of the same name, issued in 1695, which is a great rarity on the market. The map includes a wonderful treatment of the Great Lakes, a fascinating transcontinental mountain range from Michigan to Florida, wonderful depiction of the Mississippi River and terrific detail in the British Colonies. An inset map of Boston Harbor appears next to the title cartouche, above a large inset of the Atlantic Ocean and coasts of North America, Europe and part of Africa. Wonderful Florida projection.
