Description:

Unique example of this rare birds-eye view of Little Rock, being the only example we have located which includes the extra printed advertising around the printed view.

The view was apparently distributed by the Gazette Printing Co. of Little Rock, Arkansas. As the present example was folded, we surmise that was probably included in some sort of rare promotional tract or perhaps a directory, although we have been unable to locate another example. Reps lists the plate size for the edition without text at 30.5 x 18.5.

Detailed Condition:

A few fold breaks reinforced on verso. Several minor stains, the worst of which appears in the Arkansas River.
