Description:

Decorative map of Corsica from Levasseur's Atlas National Illustré des 86 Départements de des Possessions de la France.

This is the second edition of the map, which has been significantly revised. Napoleon appears twice, astride a horse and standing with his hand in his vest. At the bottom of the sheet are depictions of the island's flora, fauna, and produce. To the left and right of the map are text blocks with descriptions of the island's divisions and administration, geography, curiosities, celebrities, and products and commerce.
