Description:

Highly detailed map of Montana, showing towns, mountains, railroads, railway stations, forts, early roads, rivers, etc.

The map shows the newly established Silver Bow County (1881) and a unique western configuration of the Custer - Gallatin County boundary (this configuration existed for only about 1 year 1882), which was modified to with the creation of Yellowstone County in 1883. One of the earliest obtainable separate maps of the state and one of the most detailed commercial maps of the period. One of the most detailed maps of the state from this period.
