Description:

Scarce Spanish Sea Chart of the southern part of the Bahamas, Western Hispaniola and Eastern Cuba and Jamaica.

The chart was originally issued by the Spanish Hydrographical Department in 1856, with this example updated and corrected to 1862.

At the upper right, the map shows the "Seno de Exuma" (Exuma Sea), the channel between Exuma on the west and Cat Island (called Isla Grande de San Salvador) and Long Island on the east. To the west, the
