Description:

Rare separately issued chart of the Harbor of San Pedro, originally engraved in 1903 and corrected to 1907.

Highly detailed plan of the Harbor and town of San Pedro, California, which was then not yet part of the City of Los Angeles. Highly detailed. Includes the stamp of Max Kuner, Nautical Optician Seattle, likely the distributor of the chart to commercial sailing vessels.

With the exception of San Francisco, this is the earliest large format California Harbor Plan which we have seen in the past 20 years.

Detailed Condition:

Uniform toning
