Description:

Highly detailed decorative map of London and Environs, extending to Gravesend in the east, Hatfield and St. Albans in the North, Westerham in the South and Uxbridge in the West. The map shows the various towns, roads, churches, fortified cities, rivers, harbors, etc. in and around London, including a town plan. A nice post-fire map of the region, showing the extent of the expansion of London, which would grow to many times the size illustrated here. While the map itself is in very nice condition, it has been trimmed to or just outside the neatline, hence the reduced price.
