Description:

Full color example of Greenleaf's edition of David Burr's map of Oregon Territory, which first appeared in Burr's Universal Atlas in 1836.

Rich with Indian information and details of the earliest settlements in Oregon Territory. This fascinating map was the only commercial atlas map to depict Oregon Territory on a separate map. Extending to 54 degrees 40 minutes, it reflects the then active dispute between the US and British interests over the region which would become the southern part of British Columbia, which were not resolved until 1846.

The discoveries of Lewis & Clark, the Hudson's Bay Company and John Jacob Astor's Company are in evidence, along with some of the fascinating early water routes from the Pacific to Salt Lake (Timpanagos) and other mythical pre-Fremont Cartography. An essential Northwest Map.

Detailed Condition:

Color a bit mottled--perhaps refreshed.
