Description:

Stunning map of North America, showing marvelous detail in the interior of the continent, especially in the region on either side of the Mississippi. The map shows a remarkably detailed treatment of the region between the Appalachians and the Mississippi and the course of the Mississippi to its source, which extends well to the west of its true course. Includes extensive annotation of Indian Tribes and French forts. Florida is an archipelago. Explorers tracks through the Gulf Coast are shown. The west coast is shown to C. Blanc, with a relatively unique projection of the Baja. The map has been remargined on the right margin and has a 1/4 inch left margin, but remains a highly decorative map, exhibiting Covens & Mortier's usual elegant engraving style.
