Description:

Detailed early map of the British & French Colonies in North America, extending from Long Island and the Hudson River to the St. Lawrence, Newfoundland and contiguous parts of Labrador, centered on Nova Scotia.

The map identifies the New York, the New England Colonies (New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut and Massachusetts Bay), along with New Found Land, Nova Scotia or Acadia, York County (consisting of the future Maine and Vermont--with Main Prov noted as a small portion thereof) and a number of Forts, towns, Indian Tribes, etc. Striking cartouche. A note below York County notes "to Massachusetts Bay." Long Island is depicted as an island.

Detailed Condition:

Margin trimmed to neat line in lower left corner, as issued, to facilitate folding into book.
