Interesting map of Italy, showing the various Italian states in the midst of the period of the Risorgimento.

Beginning with the Congress of Vienna in 1815 and the end of the Napoleonic period and ending with the Franco-Prussian War, the various states which made up Italy at the beginning of the 19th Century began to consolidate. This map shows a number of these states, including the Kingdoms of Lombardia, Venice, Sardinia and Naples, along with Parma, Modena, Toscane, and Naples.

The map appeared in a small geographical work published in Rotterdam.
