Description:

Early state of Pieter Goos's chart of the British Isles.

Striking sea chart of the British Isles, showing north oriented to the right and embellished by decorative cartouches, sailing ships coats of arms and two decorative compass roses. The map extends to include the English Chanel and coastline of Normandy and identifies soundings, sand bars, fishing banks and navigational hazards. A nice example of this scarce chart.

Detailed Condition:

Old Color example, heightened in gold. Minor toning and soiling.
