Description:

Nice full color example of Jansson's map of Italy, one of the most decorative early 17th Century Italian maps to appear in a commercial atlas.

The map is richly embellished with cartouches, sailing vessels, sea monsters and a wonderful rendering of Neptune and his mate. The image of the two mer-people embracing with bar chests is a hold over from the controversial images present in the first edition of Ortelius' modern map of Italy. Portraits of Romulus and Remus in the lower right corner. An attractive example of this highly decorative and scarce map.
