Description:

Marvelous map of the US, one year prior to Texas' Independence. The treatment of the oversized 54-40 or fight Oregon Territory, Missouri Territory and the region west of the Mississippi is especially interesting. Most notable are the Spanish names appearing along the western portion of the Southern Mississippi River for the regions which would become Missouri and Arkansas and Missouri, including Lawrence, Cape Girardeau, Howard and St. Louis. The map is rich with Indian names, far more than typical. A striking map from a fascinating time period in American history.
