Description:

Scarce map of Washington Territory, based upon GLO Surveys and apparently issued to show the routes of the Seattle, Lake Shore and Eastern Railway. One of the most detailed maps of the region issued to date. Shows township surveys, towns, county seats, railroads, land grants, Indian Reservations, Subdivided townships, wheat growing areas, rivers, mountains, lakes, trading houses, roads, forts and a host of other information. One of the most detailed obtainable maps of Washington from this period. A scarce and highly desirable separately issued map, the first example we have ever seen. Archivaly backed with japan paper.
