Description:

Gorgeous map of the Strait between Copenhagen, Helsingburg, Malmoe, Landscron, with a massive view of Copenhagen and smaller views of Helsingburg, Landscron and Malmoe, and a few of the castle at Cronenburg. The map is further decorated with numerous coats of arms, dozens of sailing vessels and a host of other decorative features. Without doubt, one of the most decorative maps of the region published during the 18th Century in fine early was color. An excellent copy of this increasingly scarce decorative map.
