Description:

Detailed map of Scotland, which first appeared in Kitchin's New General Atlas and was issued with updates for approximately the next 50 years.

The map was prepared by Admiralt Surveyor Lieutenant Robert Campbell. Includes an inset of the Shetlands on the same scale and a table of distances on the stage routes.

Detailed Condition:

4-sheet map, joined to form 2 larger sheets, as issued. Minor offsetting, as usual. A few minor fold splits and tears, repaired on verso. One small hole to the right of the first N in The North Channel, but generally a nice example.
