Description:

Detailed map of the US, extending beyond the Mississippi to include most of the Lower Missouri River and North Western Territory, with a large inset of Florida.

The map has been revised to show Missouri Territory, a double wide Arkansas Territory, Michigan Territory and a massive Northwest Territory, including Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Upper Peninsula. To the west is a massive Missouri Territory. Texas is still part of Mexico, with only the Presidio on the Trinidad noted. Alabama Territory has recently been created.

Nice detail in Florida and the river system west of the Mississippi. Illinois is pushed off of Lake Michigan, as was common during the period around 1820.
