Description:

Scarce separately issued folding map of Japan, bearing the name of its seller, C.J. Favre Brandt of Yokohama.

The address on the map is 6 Charing Cross, which was Edward Stanford's first address (until 1852). We have dated the map as circa 1860, as most of the information we found about C.J. Brandt was 1860 and after. They are noted by one source as a commercial Firm in Osaka run by brothers Charles and James Favre-Brandt and apparently were importers who also dealt in optical equipment and had offices in Osaka and Yokohama.

Detailed Condition:

Some toning and soiling. Dissected and laid on linen, housed in original 7 x 5 inch cloth folder.
