Description:

Detailed chart of the harbor of Barcelona, published by J & C Walker for the British Admiralty.

The present example is the second edition of the map which was first published in 1839 and corrected to 1860. The chart includes soundings, place names, several sailing notes, detailed plans of the major fortifications of the harbor and a plan of the town.

The chart is rare on the market, this being the first example we have seen on the market. Our on line search revealed only the example reproduced by the Institut Cartogràfic de Catalunya.
