Description:

Scarce Dutch sea-chart, showing the coastline of Provence, from Bouc and St. Mitre to St. Tropez and Cap Tailliar, centered on Toulon and Marseille.

Includes a fascinating mix of topographical and hydrographical details. There is a large profile of the coastline and illustrations of certain mountains, the fortifications at Toulon and the town plan at Salines. A set of arrows shows the direction of the current.

A rare chart. We were unable to locate any record for the map in a dealer or auction catalog going back more than 30 years.

Detailed Condition:

Minor restoration in the lower right corner, extending into printed image.
