Description:

Old Color example of Abraham Bradley's map of the Midwest and Northern parts of the United States.

Abraham Bradley's map was one of the earliest maps printed in America to extend to the Mississippi River. It is also one of the few contemporary maps to identify the 5 proposed states of the Ordinance of 1789, as conceived by Thomas Jefferson.

Cincinnati is shown. Chicago is shown, along with Detroit. A number of early forts appear. The Land of the Six Nations is shown, as are New Connecticut, Ohio Company lands, the Seven Ranges, Ft. Knox, Ft. Vincennes, Ft. Hamilton, General Wayne's Treaty Line, Ft. Wayne, Ft. Miami, Ft. Franklin, early portages, and many notes on the regions in the west.

The present example is the second state of the map, with title word "Part" changed to "Parts."

Detailed Condition:

Soiling and light foxing. Tear in lower right part of the map. Lower right margin extended.
