Description:

Striking map of Ireland, showing provinces, counties, towns, rivers, mountains, lakes, islands and a host of other information. Extends east to show the Isle of Man. One of the most detailed maps of the ear. Coast of America is largely conjecture and myth, the information derived from the Russians dominated regional cartography for three decades, until Cook brought significant updates. Wagner 566, Lowery 660, Tooley #103. Strong dark impresssion.
