Description:

Nice example of Danet's second edition of De Fer's map of the Southern part of South America.

The striking large format map is the result of some of the most up to date cartographic information coming back to Europe from the Jesuit Missionaries who were then actively working to convert the indigenous peoples of South America to Christianity.

The map includes a significant amount of detail in the interior, along with a number of annotations addressing the discoveries of earlier explorers, including Magellan (1520), Le Maire (1616), Anthony de la Roche (1675), Brower (1643) and many others.

A nice example of this scarce map.

Detailed Condition:

Soiled along bottom margin, with some minor chips and tears.
