Description:

Fine pair of maps of the Holy Land, showing the region in modern times (mid-18th Century) and as known at the time of the 12 Tribes.

The maps are based upon Philippe de La Rue's maps of the region and provide an extensive set of annotations. The map provides an excellent side by side comparison of the place names and places where there were settlements, towns, mountains, rivers, etc., allowing for easy comparison of the region during the two periods.

The map is quite rare, with no examples recorded by AMPR in dealer catalogues or auction records going back more than 20 years.
