Description:

Highly detailed folding map of London in original slip case.

The map is exceptionally detailed, including all of the buildings constructed up to 1797. Bowles regularly updated this map, making it one of the most up to date maps of London published during the period.

The reference key notes nearly 200 churches and principal buildings, with a coordinate locating them on the map for ease of use. A fine example of this 18th century map of London.

Detailed Condition:

Case Map. Segmented and laid on linen, with original marbled slip case and paste down title.
