Description:

Scarce separately issued pocket map of the Seat of War in Virginia and Maryland.

The map was issued in Germany to illustrate the battles which had been fought in the early stages of the American Civil War, apparently catering to an interested audience in Eastern Germany.

Shows towns, railroad, lines, roads, rivers, court houses, islands, and many other fine details.

One of the few separately issued civil war maps to be printed in Continental Europe.

Detailed Condition:

Dissected and laid on linen.
