Interesting map of San Juan By The Sea and neighboring land, extending to the boundary of Rancho Boca de la Playa.

The map shows the subdivision for San Juan By The Sea, and the lands owned by the Richfield Oil Company, Petroleum Services Co., John & Frank Forster (descendents of Don Juan Forster, who purchased the Mission and Mission Lands from Mexico in 1844), the Dana Point Company, Albert Prior, Soledad P. Landell, and the Dana Point Water Company, along with manuscript annotations for the construction of a proposed earth dyke.

The map was reportedly part of the S.H. Woodruff papers (the original developer of Dana Point and Hollywoodland) and may reflect work preparing for the development of Dana Point, which commenced in
