Map of Rosedale Colony, Kern County, California, showing its relative position to Bakersfield, Also map of a portion of Kern County, showing property of the kern County
Land Company, with Irrigating Canals and Artesian Belt. . . . 1892

The Kern County Land Company founded the Rosedale Colony in 1890. After building the Calloway Canal through the area, the company recruited settlers from the eastern United States and Europe.

The map and promotional tract are of the utmost rarity. OCLC locates no copies of the pamphlet, although something similar may be in the Huntington Library.
