The Kennebec River and Adjacent Country Shewing the Routes Examined For A Road From Augusta to the Canada Line in The Direction of Quebec . . . 1834 by Hartman Bache T.E. . . .

Stock#: 28661
Map Maker: U.S. Government

Date: 1835
Place: Washington
Color: Uncolored
Condition: VG+
Size: 31 x 11 inches

Price: SOLD

Description:

Fine detailed map showing the route for a proposed road from Augusta to the Canadian Border.

The title continues "Reconnaissance made in 1834 by Hartman Bache T.E. & Bt. Major Assisted by G. W. Ward 2nd Lt. 2nd Arty. and J. F. Cooper Bt.2nd Lt. 3rd Infy." The map used Greenleaf's map of Maine as its source with corrections by Ward and Cooper.

The map is centered on Bingham, extending south along the Kennebec River to Hallowell and Augusta and north to the Canadian line. The north is mostly unsettled, but the map names Moosehead Lake, the Bald Mountains, and three branches of the Penobscot River.
