Description:

Fine map of the Chinese provinces of Canton and Hainan, centered on the Macao and Hong Kong region

Includes an elaborate, decorative title cartouche showing European and Chinese traders at work.

The map was first published in Paris in 1735 by Jean Baptiste Bourguignon D'Anville and was then re-issued in 1737 in atlas form in The Hague in the "Nouvel Atlas De La Chine". This important atlas comprised 42 new and more detailed maps than any previous atlas. It was published to accompany Pere J.B. Du Halde's "Description Geographique, Historique, Chronologique, Et Physique De L'Empire De La Chine".
