Description:

Hondius' sought after map of Bermuda, with decorative cartouche, compass rose, and other embellishments. The map is based upon John Norwood's survey of 1618. The text at the bottom includes a division into lots and tribes and a list of the Proprietors. Repaired tear enters on the right side of the image for about 4 inches, with some tiny restorations. Some minor extra creasing at the centerfold. In all a decorative example of this desirable map. Spanish text on the verso. Normally a $2,500 map.
