Description:

Decorative and unusual trading card map published by the Arbuckle coffee company in 1889.

The card shows the Holy City of Jerusalem set against a rising sun, with spires, steeples, and minarets within its ancient walls. Adjacent to this image is a map of Palestine, showing the most important cities and features. The Syrian Desert and part of Egypt are also shown

The Arbuckle Brothers founded their eponymous coffee company at following the end of the civil war, and are still selling coffee today.
