Description:

Scarce Danet edition of this detailed map of the 17 provinces, including a coat of arms for each of the provinces below the cartouche.

The map illustrates the various possessions of France, Spain, and the "States General." The elaborate title cartouche features Athena, the goddess of wisdom and civilization, at left, and Mercury, a messenger and god of trade, at right, with terrestrial and celestial globes between them. Engraved by P. Starckman.
