

Barry Lawrence Ruderman Antique Maps Inc.

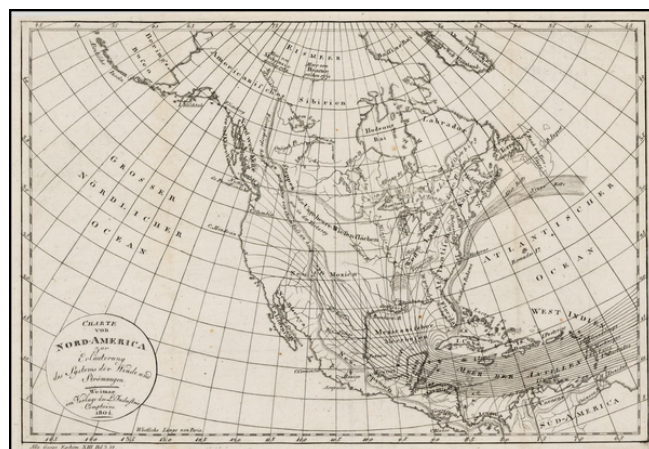

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

Charte von Nord-America zur Erläuterung des Systems der Winde und Stromungen . . . 1804

Stock#: 31039
Map Maker: Weimar Geographische Institut
Date: 1804
Place: Weimar
Color: Uncolored
Condition: VG
Size: 13 x 9 inches
Price: SOLD

Description:

Early German map of North America, focusing on the Gulf Stream and prevailing winds.

One of the earliest German maps to focus on the Gulf Stream.

Two notes in northern Canada indicate the discoveries of Mackenzie and Hearne, and a note that stretches from Canada through the U.S. indicates "plains, or massive expanses of meadows like in Tartary." In Central America, Honduras is named Mosquitos.

Detailed Condition:

Minor spotting.